AUDIO TRANSCRIPT

Kerry Wright:

Welcome to QCC's new podcast series, the Path of Public Service. I'm your host, Kerry Wright. Join us as we walk through the lives of deeply committed public servants who are working hard behind the scenes and in front of audiences, improving public services that Canadians rely on and that shape our experiences.

Whether deputy minister, journalist, author, public broadcaster, actor, tax credit advisor, or consumer specialist, QCC applauds individuals who have played a critical role in our public lives beyond the Call of Duty. As your host, I'll ask thought provoking questions with fresh insights, but it is our guests who turn their incredible life experiences into inspiring messages, reflecting into moments of adversity and triumph.

Please make sure to subscribe to the Path of Public Service, so you can listen and continue the journey when new content is available. We can all benefit as we together follow the path of public service.
